

Press Release :

Eficio and PMC join forces in the field of project management, digital transformation and IT governance.

PMC and Eficio ally together to strengthen their services and support project management offices and CIOs through this new strategic alliance.

Montreal, November 6, 2024 – PMC, experts in project management, and Eficio, a leader in digital transformation and IT governance, announce a new strategic alliance that will allow the two firms to position themselves in new markets, integrate their complementary expertise and meet the growing needs of modern day enterprises.

Thanks to this collaboration, clients will benefit from a broader range of services, including a complete project management offering with cutting-edge training in adaptive (Agile), predictive (Waterfall) and hybrid modes as well as market-recognized certifications. In addition, Eficio will now be able to offer its services to a larger clientele, thus strengthening its capacity to engage with ambitious companies.

The strategic alliance between PMC and Eficio also brings significant value to the members of their respective teams. By working together, the two firms will offer new opportunities for professional development and collaboration within their teams, allowing each employee to actively contribute to their clients' strategic projects. This alliance also represents a unique opportunity for employees to participate in cutting-edge initiatives in project management and digital transformation, and to strengthen their skills in a dynamic and innovative environment.
